

GD'A VENETO 2009-ITALY

13th June 2009

Prize winner:

Silvia Gribaudi for her work "A CORPO LIBERO"

International jury citation

Long and intense discussions have highlighted the big difference characterising the various works presented and the consequent difficulty in judging them. The judges have based their decision on the following principles.

This is a prize for young choreographers and should be assigned on the grounds of both their artistic development and their ability to deliver a completed work on the basis of a clear project as well as to master the technical aspects of the production.

On the above grounds the jury has decided to give the GDA 2009 prize to "A Corpo Libero" by Silvia Gribaudi.
